REAL ESTATE TEAM

Welcome to the William Thoburn House, a heritage-designated stone residence built in 1888 and once home to one of Almonte's most prominent industrialists. Rich in history and beautifully preserved, this remarkable home is set in a town known as the Hallmark movie capital of Ontario, featuring mature trees, lush gardens, and refined landscaping that create a truly inviting arrival. A charming covered front porch, two driveways, and elegant interlock approach set the tone for the timeless elegance found throughout.

Step inside to a grand foyer that showcases the craftsmanship of the home. Soaring ceilings, rich wood floors, and intricate original details including crown mouldings, decorative trim, and a restored stained glass window (2025) create a striking first impression. The majority of windows in this home were replaced in 2023, while the sweeping staircase adds warmth and character.

A bright and inviting living room offers a welcoming setting for cozy evenings and relaxed movie nights, with large windows overlooking the front of the home and filling the space with natural light. A gas fireplace with a classic mantel creates a warm focal point, while double doors open to the covered front porch, seamlessly connecting indoor and outdoor living.

Through elegant pocket doors, the great room reveals a stunning space designed for gathering and entertaining. Anchored by a wood-burning fireplace* with an intricate mantel, the room is enhanced by ornate crown mouldings, a striking chandelier, and a grand bay window that fills the space with light.

The dining room is a stately and refined space, ideal for hosting, with room to accommodate large gatherings. An elegant chandelier and detailed ceiling add to its character, while a unique curved architectural feature creates the perfect setting for a hutch or display. A large closet adds exceptional convenience, ideal for storing dishware, linens, or serving pieces.

*Functional, but not WETT-certified. See notes.
